

President-Elect

The President-elect serves alongside the President and assumes all presidential duties in the absence of the President. The primary goal of the President-elect term is to collaborate with the President, provide input before and after meetings, and learn about the operations of the Board. The President-elect also supports Board efforts in the absence or in support of Board members at its chapter events and meetings. The President-elect supports and assists with elections for the following year, helping to recruit potential candidates. The President-elect also assists in ensuring quality programming at chapter events. This Board position is the first of a three-year commitment that is followed by President and ends as Past-President. In order to be considered for this role, candidates must have served at least one year in another role on a CUPA-HR Board. Additionally, the President-Elect must currently be in a role within Higher Education Human Resources. The estimated time commitment for this role is 5-10 hours per month. Candidates must be from a national CUPA member institution.

