(2) To indemnify or advance expenses to the authorized representative, even if the authorized representative has not met the relevant standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 of this Article, failed to comply with Section 3 of this Article, or was adjudged liable in a proceeding referred to in Section 1 of this Article, but if the authorized representative was adjudged so liable the authorized representative's indemnification shall be limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

If the court determines that the authorized representative is entitled to indemnification under this Section, or to indemnification or advance for expenses under this Section, it shall also order the Chapter to pay the authorized representative's reasonable expenses incurred in connection with obtaining court-ordered indemnification or advance for expenses. A Chapter may, by a provision in its articles of incorporation, limit any of the rights to indemnification or advance for expenses created by or pursuant to this part.

This part does not limit a Chapter's power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by an authorized representative in connection with the authorized representative's appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the authorized representative is not a party. This part does not limit a Chapter's power to indemnify, advance expenses to, or provide or maintain insurance on behalf of an employee or agent.
