ARTICLE VII. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY, INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE

Section 1. Authority to Indemnify

The Chapter may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was an authorized representative against liability incurred in the proceeding if the individual: (1) Conducted himself or herself in good faith; (2) Reasonably believed (i) in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity with the Chapter, that his or her conduct was in its best interests; and (ii) in all other cases, that his or her conduct was at least not opposed to its best interests; and (3) In the case of any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. An authorized representative's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose the authorized representative reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirement of this Section. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of no contest or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the director did not meet the standard of conduct described in this Section.

The Chapter shall not indemnify an authorized representative under this Section: (1) In connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the Chapter in which the authorized representative was adjudged liable to the Chapter; or (2) In connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to the authorized representative, whether or not involving action in his or her official capacity, in which the authorized representative was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by the authorized representative.

Indemnification permitted under this section in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the Chapter that is concluded without a final adjudication on the issue of liability is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding. The authorization, approval, or favorable recommendation by the board of directors of the Chapter of indemnification, as permitted by this Section, shall not be deemed an act or corporate transaction in which an authorized representative has a conflict of interest, and no such indemnification shall be void or voidable on such ground.

Section 2. Mandatory Indemnification

Unless limited by its articles of incorporation, the Chapter shall indemnify an authorized representative who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceedings to which the authorized representative was a party because he is or was an authorized representative of the Chapter against reasonable expenses actually incurred by the authorized representative in connection with the proceeding.

Section 3. Advance of Expenses

Expenses incurred by an authorized representative in defending a proceeding may be paid by the Chapter in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding as authorized by the board of directors in the specific case or as authorized or required under any provision in the articles of incorporation or these bylaws or by any applicable resolution or contract upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the authorized representative to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that the director is entitled to be indemnified by the Chapter against such expenses.

Section 4. Court-Ordered Indemnification

Unless the Chapter's articles of incorporation provide otherwise, an authorized representative of the Chapter who is a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification to the court conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. On receipt of an application, the court, after giving any notice the court considers necessary, may order indemnification if it determines: (1) The authorized representative is entitled to mandatory indemnification under Section 2 of this Article, in which case the court shall also order the Chapter to pay the authorized representative's reasonable expenses incurred to obtain court-ordered indemnification; or (2) The authorized representative is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification, in whole or in part, in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the authorized representative met the standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 of this Article or was adjudged liable as described in Section 1 of this Article, but if the authorized representative was adjudged so liable, such indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses incurred.

Section 5. Determination and Authorization of Indemnification

The Chapter shall not indemnify an authorized representative under Section 1 of this Article unless authorized in the specific case after a determination has been made that indemnification of the authorized representative is permissible in the circumstances because the authorized representative has met the standard of conduct set forth Section 1 of this Article. The determination shall be made: (1) By the board of directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the proceeding; (2) If a quorum cannot be obtained under subdivision (1) of this subsection, by a majority vote of a committee duly designated by the board of directors (in which designation directors who are parties may participate), consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding; (3) By legal counsel (i) selected by the board of directors or its committee in the manner prescribed in this Section; or (ii) if a quorum of the board cannot be obtained under this Section and a committee cannot be designated under (2) of this Section, selected by majority vote of the full board (in which selection directors who are parties may participate); or (4) By the members, but directors who are at the time parties to the proceeding shall not vote on the determination. Authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if the determination is made by legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made by those entitled under this Section to select counsel.

Section 6. Insurance

The Chapter may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is or was an authorized representative of the Chapter, or who, while an authorized representative of the Chapter, is or was serving at the request of the Chapter as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise, against liability asserted against or incurred by him or her in that capacity or arising from his status as an authorized representative, whether or not the Chapter would have power to indemnify him or her against the same liability under any provision of this Article.

Section 7. Application of Part

If articles of incorporation limit indemnification or advance for expenses, indemnification and advance for expenses are valid only to the extent consistent with the articles of incorporation. This Part does not limit the Chapter's power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by an authorized representative in connection with appearing as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the authorized representative has not been made a named defendant or respondent to the proceeding.

Section 8. Definitions

For purpose of this Article, the term "authorized representative" shall mean a director, member, officer, employee, or agent (including each former director, member, officer, employee, or agent) of the Chapter or of any corporation controlled by the Chapter, or a trustee, custodian, administrator, committeeman, or fiduciary of any employee benefit plan established and maintained by the Chapter or a person serving another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise in any of the foregoing capacities at the request of the Chapter.

For purposes of this Article, references to "the Chapter" shall include, in addition to the surviving corporation, any merging corporation (including any corporation having merged with a merging corporation) absorbed in a merger involving the Chapter which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had the power and authority to indemnify its directors, members, officers, employees or agents, so that any person who was a director, member, officer, employee or agent of such merging corporation, or was serving at the request of such merging corporation as a director, member, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Section with respect to the surviving corporation as such person would have with respect to such merging corporation if its separate existence had continued.

ARTICLE VIII. AMENDMENTS

Any provision in these Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds majority vote of members present and voting at the regular annual business meeting of the Chapter, or by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast in the event of a ballot, provided that members of the Chapter have access to any proposed amendment or amendments at least thirty days prior to the closing date for receipt of votes as expressed in the proposed amendment(s) provided to members. Notice to members of the Chapter may be delivered via posting on the Chapter Web site, by publication in the Chapter newsletter, or by written distribution to members. If notification via posting on the Web site is selected, members will be alerted with an e-mail directing them to the site.

ARTICLE IX. DISSOLUTION OF THE CHAPTER

The Chapter may be dissolved upon a two-thirds vote of the full Chapter Board. Upon the dissolution and liquidation of the Chapter, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all liabilities of the Chapter, distribute all Chapter assets to a nonprofit fund, foundation, association, or corporation in the Human Resources field which is recognized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes with the meaning of Sections 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law, as selected by the Board of Directors.

Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas, or the equivalent thereof, of the county in which the principal office of the Chapter is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE X. MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Methods of Voting

The Chapter is at liberty to utilize any method of communication approved by majority vote of their Board to conduct elections (including nominating procedures) or to vote on bylaws changes. Such methods may include, but not be limited to, secret ballots, e-mail ballots, written ballots, mail ballots, or a combination thereof.
