Section 1. Generally

The Chapter may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit, or proceeding, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that the person is or was an authorized representative of the Chapter, or is or was serving at the request of the Chapter as a director, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of or a volunteer of another domestic or foreign nonprofit corporation or business corporation, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Chapter, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if the person had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not create, of itself, a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Chapter, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, a presumption that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Action by or in the Right of Chapter

The Chapter may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Chapter to procure a judgment in its favor, by reason of the fact that the person is or was an authorized representative of the Chapter, or is or was serving at the request of the Chapter as a director, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of or a volunteer of another domestic or foreign nonprofit corporation or business corporation, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any of the following: (a) Any claim, issue, or matter as to which the person is adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of the person's duty to the Chapter unless, and only to the extent that, the court of common pleas or the court in which the action or suit was brought determines, upon application, that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court of common pleas or such other court considers proper; (b) Any action or suit in which liability is asserted against an authorized representative and that liability is asserted only pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Annotated ("Revised Code") Section 1702.55.

Section 3. Mandatory Indemnification

To the extent that an authorized representative has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Section 1 or 2 of this Article, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter in such an action, suit, or proceeding, the person shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with that action, suit, or proceeding.

Section 4. Authorization

Unless ordered by a court and subject to Section 3 of this Article, any indemnification under Sections 1 or 2 of this Article shall be made by the Chapter only as authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the authorized representative is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 1 or 2 of this Article. Such determination shall be made in any of the following manners: (a) By a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors of the indemnifying corporation who were not and are not parties to or threatened with the action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Sections 1 or 2 of this Article; (b) Whether or not a quorum as described in this Section is obtainable, and if a majority of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, in a written opinion by legal counsel other than an attorney, or a firm having associated with it an attorney, who has been retained by or who has performed services for the Chapter or any person to be indemnified within the past five years; (c) By the members; (d) By the court of common pleas or the court in which the action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Sections 1 or 2 of this Article was brought. If an action or suit by or in the right of the Chapter is involved, any determination made by the disinterested directors under this Section or by legal counsel under this Section shall be communicated promptly to the person who threatened or brought the action or suit under Section 2 of this Article, and, within ten days after receipt of that notification, the person shall have the right to petition the court of common pleas or the court in which the action or suit was brought to review the reasonableness of that determination.

Section 5. Expenses

Unless, at the time of authorized representative's act or omission that is the subject of an action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Section 1 or 2 of this Article, the articles or regulations of the corporation state, by specific reference to this Article, that its provisions do not apply to the Chapter, or unless the only liability asserted against an authorized representative in an action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Section 1 or 2 of this Article is pursuant to Section 1702.55 of the Revised Code, or unless this Section applies, the expenses incurred by the authorized representative in defending the action, suit, or proceeding, including attorney's fees, shall be paid by the corporation. Upon the request of the authorized representative and in accordance with this Section, those expenses shall be paid as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding.

Notwithstanding this Section, the expenses incurred by an authorized representative in defending an action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Sections 1 or 2 of this Article, including attorney's fees, shall not be paid by the corporation upon the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, or, if paid in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, shall be repaid to the corporation by the director or volunteer, if it is proved, by clear and convincing evidence, in a court with jurisdiction that the act or omission of the director or volunteer was one undertaken with a deliberate intent to cause injury to the corporation or was one undertaken with a reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation.

Expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by an authorized representative in defending any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Section 1 or 2 of this Article may be paid by the corporation as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, as authorized by the directors in the specific case, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the authorized representative to repay the amount if it ultimately is determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Chapter.

Section 6. Nonexclusive

The indemnification or advancement of expenses authorized by this section is not exclusive of, and shall be in addition to, any other rights granted to those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses, pursuant to the articles, the regulations, any agreement, a vote of members or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacities and as to action in another capacity while holding their offices or positions, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, member, manager, agent, or volunteer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of that person. A right to indemnification or to advancement of expenses arising under a provision of the articles or the regulations shall not be eliminated or impaired by an amendment to that provision after the occurrence of the act or omission that becomes the subject of the civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit, or proceeding for which the indemnification or advancement of expenses is sought, unless the provision in effect at the time of that act or omission explicitly authorizes that elimination or impairment after the act or omission has occurred.

Section 7. Insurance

The Chapter may purchase and maintain insurance, or furnish similar protection, including, but not limited to, trust funds, letters of credit, or self-insurance, for or on behalf of any person who is or was An authorized representative of the Chapter, or is or was serving at the request of the Chapter as a director, officer, employee, member, manager, agent, or volunteer of another domestic or foreign nonprofit corporation or business corporation, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against the person and incurred by the person in any such capacity, or arising out of the person's status as such, whether or not the Chapter would have the power to indemnify the person against that liability under this Article. Insurance may be so purchased from or so maintained with a person in which the Chapter has a financial interest.

The authority of a corporation to indemnify persons pursuant to Sections 1 or 2 of this Article does not limit the payment of expenses as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of an action, suit, or proceeding, pursuant to Section 5 of this Article or the payment of indemnification, insurance, or other protection that may be provided pursuant to Sections 6 or 7 of this Article. Sections 1 or 2 of this Article do not create any obligation to repay or return payments made by a corporation pursuant to this Article.

Section 8. Definitions

For purpose of this Article, the term “authorized representative” shall mean a director, member, officer, employee, or agent (including each former director, member, officer, employee, or agent) of the Chapter or of any corporation controlled by the Chapter, or a trustee, custodian, administrator, committeeman, or fiduciary of any employee benefit plan established and maintained by the Chapter or a person serving another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise in any of the foregoing capacities at the request of the Chapter.

For purposes of this Article, references to "the Chapter" shall include, in addition to the surviving corporation, any merging corporation (including any corporation having merged with a merging corporation) absorbed in a merger involving the Chapter which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had the power and authority to indemnify its directors, members, officers, employees or agents, so that any person who was a director, member, officer, employee or agent of such merging corporation, or was serving at the request of such merging corporation as a director, member, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Section with respect to the surviving corporation as such person would have with respect to such merging corporation if its separate existence had continued.
